

Donating to the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign from the United States

Thank you for your interest in donating to the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign to support African grandmothers, the millions of orphaned children in their care, and the community-based organizations who support them, and work to turn the tide of AIDS in Africa.

As a U.S. taxpayer, you can deduct charitable donations only when those donations have been made to a U.S. tax-exempt organization/charity. The Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign is a global Campaign that was started by the Stephen Lewis Foundation in Canada. In the United States, the Stephen Lewis Foundation partners with the U.S. based charity, the TIDES Foundation, to bring the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign to the U.S.!

Your donations, and the funds you raise can be made out to the TIDES Foundation—Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign (check or money order) and sent to the TIDES Foundation address below:

TIDES Foundation
The Presidio
P.O. Box 29903
San Francisco CA 94129

In accordance with IRS tax regulations, TIDES Foundation only issues a U.S. charitable donation receipt for contributions over $250 USD. If you would like a tax receipt for your donation, please be sure to request one when you send in your donation, and ensure that your name, address and phone number are included on the check. For donations of less than $250 USD, you should retain your own bank records if you plan to deduct the donation on your U.S. taxes.

Thank you!
